

Having local TV is a great thing. You see more of what the area you live in is interested in and not what the other side of the country is interested in.